

Academic Pediatric Association
Educational Scholars Program: Cohort 5 (2012-2015)

Last Name	First Name	Institution	Project Title
Alegria	Jamilet	USC Keck School of Medicine	Evaluation of a Curriculum Designed for Medical Students Completing Their Core Pediatrics Curriculum on an Attending-Only Hospitalist Service.
Aquino	Julia	Tufts University School of Medicine	Improving 3rd Year Medical Student Family Centered Verbal Presentation Skills Through a Novel Role Play Curriculum
Cidon	Michal	Lucile Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford	Pediatric Rheumatology Learning with Curriculum-Embedded Formative Assessment
Clark	Marie	Albert Einstein College of Medicine of Yeshiva University	PoRT (Poverty Resource Training): an experiential curriculum to enhance pediatric resident understanding of and response to patients and families living in poverty
Eagle	Steven	Hackensack University Medical center	Boot Camp: A Clinical Refresher for 3rd Year Medical Students
Gault	Allison	Mount Sinai School of Medicine	Development, Implementation and Evaluation of A Novel Faculty Development Curriculum For InterACT, A Longitudinal Integrated Clerkship
Gibbs	Kathleenr	Mount Sinai School of Medicine	The Resident Teaching Rotation: Developing Objective Outcome Measures
Gifford	Kimberly	Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center	Characteristics of Effective Self-Assessment for the Purpose of Improving Learning
Jerardi	Karen	Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center	Effective Educational Strategies for Rapid Evidence Adoption of UTI Management Guidelines
Katz	Cynthia	The Brooklyn Hospital Center	Bridging the Gap: Improving International Medical Graduates' Interpersonal and Communication Skills
Kern	Jeremy	Children's National Medical Center	Assessing the Use of Digital Technology on Family and Trainee Education During Family Centered Rounds
Lichtenstein	Cara	Children's National Medical Center	Development and Evaluation of Entrustable Professional Activities in A Community Health Pediatric Residency Training Program
Lorch	Margarita	Thomas Jefferson University	Implementation of a Monthly Mock Code Curriculum to Improve Resident Comfort Level and Performance of Resuscitation Skills
Lynn	Justin	University of Rochester Medical Center	A Streamlined Pediatric Residency Curriculum for Hospitalist Teaching and Evaluation
Osman	Cindy	New York University/Bellevue Hospital	Using Objective Structured Teaching Examinations (OSTEs) as a Tool for Faculty-Directed Faculty Development
Staples	Betty	Duke University Medical Center	Comparison of 3 Distinct Inpatient Resident Coverage Models
Treitz	Meghan	Children's Hospital Colorado	Development, Implementation, and Evaluation of a Partially Individualized Advocacy Curriculum for Pediatric Residents
Vachani	Joyee	Baylor College of Medicine/Texas Children's Hospital	Patient Safety Curriculum: Improvement in Healthcare One Learner at a Time