

The poster features a vibrant illustration of a New Orleans street at night. On the left, a balcony with purple and gold Mardi Gras bunting and hanging plants overlooks a street lined with black wrought-iron balconies and glowing street lamps. In the background, the New Orleans skyline is visible under a purple and blue twilight sky, with St. Louis Cathedral as a central landmark. A network of icons representing people is overlaid on the sky. In the bottom right corner, there is a detailed illustration of a Mardi Gras mask with purple, green, and gold feathers and a string of beads.
